General and Annual Meetings

- Bylaw 4 (1) The corporation recognizes and adopts the use of electronic mail to serve notices of meetings of the corporation and executive board, as well as notices of special events and other corporation business to members of the register at their last known email address.
- (2) An annual general meeting of the corporation shall be held at least once in every year on dates and locations to be determined by the executive board.
- (3) Each regular member of the Association in good standing shall be entitled to one vote at all meetings of the Association and may vote in person or by proxy. Associate, life or honorary members shall not have voting rights at meetings of the Association.
- (4) Two (2) weeks' notice giving the time, date and place of the annual general meeting shall be sent by electronic mail or by ordinary post to every member on the register at their last known address.
- (5) The president shall call a special meeting of the corporation for the transaction of the business that is specified in the resolution or demand is to be held:
- (a) On resolution of the executive board; or
- (b) On the demand in writing signed by at least ten (10) members.
- (6) Two (2) weeks' notice giving the time, date and place of the special meeting shall be sent by electronic mail or by ordinary post to every member on the register at their last known address.
- (7) The order of business at the meeting shall be in accordance with the agenda prepared by the executive board and the order of business at a special meeting shall be in accordance with the agenda prepared by the president.
- (8) A simple majority of the membership of the corporation constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting an annual general meeting or a special meeting of the corporation.
- (9) Voting at the annual general meeting or special meeting shall be by show of hands or by ballot as the meeting may decide, except as otherwise may be provided for in a bylaw. All general questions shall be decided by a majority of votes of the membership in attendance.
- (10) Except with the unanimous consent of members at the annual general meeting, no amendments to the bylaws of the corporation shall be proposed or introduced for which notice was not submitted to the Executive Director at least five (5) weeks prior to the annual general meeting and subsequently circulated to the membership two (2) weeks prior to the annual general meeting.
- (11) The president may require the resolutions to be presented to the meeting be in writing. In such case, the resolution shall bear the name of the mover. Seconders are not required.
- (12) Where circumstances do not allow for a meeting, the Executive may direct that a mail vote or vote by means of electronic transmission will be taken on any matter that requires the approval of the regular membership.

The Executive shall determine the form and wording of the ballot and the method of voter identification for security purposes and shall include, as part of the ballot, a clear explanation of the matter to be voted on.

The ballot shall be mailed or sent by means of electronic transmission.

In order to be counted for or against the matter the ballots must be properly marked and mailed back or returned by means of electronic transmission, to the Executive Director within the time period specified by the Executive and indicated plainly on the ballots.

Upon the expiry of the specified time the ballots shall be counted by the Executive Director in the presence of not less than two regular members of the Association in good standing.

At least 30% of regular members must return properly marked ballots for a vote to be considered valid. The resolution must be approved by 75% of voting members. Notice of the result of the mail and/or electronic ballot shall be mailed or electronically forwarded forthwith to each member of the Association

- (13) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be signed by the appointer and shall be in such form as approved by the Executive of the Association. No person shall act as a proxy unless (s)he is a regular member of the Association.
- (14) If the association chooses to make available Electronic Means to participate in an annual general meeting or special meeting, any person entitled to attend such annual general meeting or special meeting may participate in the meeting by Electronic Means.
- (15) The executive may determine that an annual general meeting or special meeting shall be held entirely by Electronic Means.
- (16) All equipment required to participate in a meeting by Electronic Means must be readily accessible to all participants. For the purposes of this clause, the following shall be considered readily accessible to all participants: telephone and telephone connectivity, computer or other device capable of connecting to the internet and internet connectivity, and software and applications available for download without cost.
- (17) For the purpose of determining quorum, a regular member or their duly appointed proxyholder participating in a meeting by Electronic Means is deemed to be present at the meeting. If a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting, the members may proceed with the business of the meeting, even if a quorum is not present throughout the meeting and such loss of quorum shall not invalidate any of the actions taken or business transacted at the meeting. It is the responsibility of participants to ensure connectivity for the duration of the meeting. The presence of a quorum at the opening of a meeting will be determined by either of the following methods, as determined by the chair of the meeting:
  - a. roll call conducted by the chair of the meeting and recorded in the minutes of meeting; or
  - b. if the Electronic Means allow for the number of regular members who are participating in the meeting by Electronic Means at the opening of the meeting to be determined and recorded in a manner that permits its subsequent verification, then by such record.
- (18) Regular members and their duly appointed proxyholders who attend a meeting by Electronic Means may vote by any of the following methods, as determined by the chair of the meeting:
  - a. by voice vote as follows: when a vote is called, opposition to the motion is called first. If no one is opposed, the motion is considered carried. If there is opposition, the motion shall be voted on by voice vote. If the chair has a problem determining the vote, the chair may call for a roll call vote. The roll call vote is for determination of the outcome of the vote and shall not be recorded in the minutes; or
  - b. by electronic voting by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility, if the Association makes available such a communication facility and provided that the communication facility enables the votes to be gathered in a manner that permits their subsequent verification and permits the tallied votes to be presented to the Association without it being possible for the Association to identify how each regular member voted.
- (19) The Rules of Order as agreed by the executive, shall govern participation in meetings by Electronic Means and meetings held entirely by Electronic Means, provided that where such rules require a person to rise, including to make a motion or to signal the desire to speak in a debate, a participant participating in a meeting by Electronic Means shall instead seek recognition from the chair by verbal communication to the chair. All participants participating in a meeting by Electronic Means must state their name before speaking.

Bylaw Procedures

- Bylaw 5 (1) The executive board with the approval of not less than a two-thirds (2/3's) majority of the members of the executive may make bylaws for any purpose for the good of the corporation.
- (2) A bylaw made by the executive board pursuant to subsection (1) has effect only until the next annual or special meeting of the corporation and, unless confirmed or varied by the members in accordance with subsection (3), ceases to have any effect after that time.
  - (3) With the approval of a two-thirds (2/3's) majority of those members who vote at an annual or special meeting, the corporation may:
    - (a) Make bylaws for any purpose for the good of the corporation; and
    - (b) Confirm, vary or revoke any bylaw made by the executive board pursuant to subsection (1).
  - (4) The variation or revocation of a bylaw pursuant to subsection (3) does not affect the operation or application of the bylaw prior to its revocation or variation, and everything done, omitted to be done or authorized pursuant to the bylaw is valid and effective against all persons notwithstanding the revocation or variation.
  - (5) The Executive Director shall forward copies of proposed bylaws to all members at least 14 days before the date of the annual or special meeting at which the bylaws are to be presented.
  - (6) The Executive Director shall notify each member of each bylaw made pursuant to subsection (1) or (3), or confirmed, varied or revoked pursuant to subsection (3), within 150 days after the bylaw is made, confirmed, varied or revoked.
  - (7) The corporation shall file two (2) copies certified by the Executive Director to be true copies of all the bylaws with the Minister of Justice.
  - (8) Every member and associate member shall comply with the bylaws.

- (12) On a review pursuant to subsection (10) the person aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Director has the right to appear in person before the executive board or be represented by an agent appointed by that person in support of the application.
- (13) The executive board shall cause the applicant to be informed, in writing, of its decision regarding the review.

Membership Fees

- Bylaw 7 (1) The actual annual membership fee will be determined by the executive board and based on the total number of SASBO approved members within a specific school division. Upon being granted membership in the corporation, any person shall be required to pay to the corporation, or have paid on their behalf, an administration fee in an amount as determined by the executive board.
- (2) The annual membership fee for members and associate members for the ensuing fiscal year shall be set by the executive board and any change to the fee shall be approved by the members at the spring meeting of the corporation.
- (3) The annual membership fee shall be paid in full or in ten (10) equal monthly installments from September to June.
- (4) A member or an associate member employed or contracted on the basis of less than one hundred percent (100%) shall be assessed an annual fee as determined by the executive board.
- (5) Any person who commences employment and is granted membership during the year, which increases the present membership of the school division established at the start of the fiscal year, shall pay a pro-rated fee based upon the number of months remaining in the fiscal year.
- (6) No fees shall be payable to the corporation by a life member or an honorary member unless that person returns to the employ of a school division for a period greater than six (6) months.

- (7) A member or an associate member whose fees are in arrears for a period greater than six (6) months shall be struck from the register.
- (8) A person whose name has been struck from the register for non-payment of any fees payable to the corporation and who otherwise qualifies as a member or an associate member may have his or her name reinstated in the register by applying in writing to the Executive Director with payment of the appropriate fees.

Elections

- Bylaw 8
- (1) The executive board shall consist of the president, past president, president-elect and eight (8) directors.
  - (2) The president-elect shall be elected from members at large at the annual general meeting.
  - (3) The president and president-elect shall hold office for one (1) year with elections for president-elect being held each year at the annual general meeting. The president-elect shall automatically become the president following the term of office as president-elect.
  - (4) For the purpose of electing eight (8) directors to positions on the executive board, members shall each declare their primary employment role and the membership, based upon the declarations received, shall then be divided into eight (8) primary employment categories: Chief Financial Officer, Financial, Payroll/Human Resources, Communications, Facilities, Procurement, Transportation and Information Technology.
  - (5) Members as declared from each primary employment category shall elect two members from within their primary employment category to act as a director and a deputy director to the executive board.
  - (6) The term of office for all positions on the executive board shall follow the association fiscal year, that being the period of time commencing September 1st and ending August 31st.
  - (7) In the event that the office of the president becomes vacant, the president-elect shall act in the president's place and stead until the next annual general meeting of the corporation.
  - (8) In the event that the office of the president becomes vacant, and if the vacancy cannot be filled by the president-elect, the executive board shall appoint an acting president from the executive board who shall act in their place and stead until the next annual general meeting of the corporation.
  - (9) In the event that the office of president-elect becomes vacant, the executive board shall appoint an acting president-elect from the executive board who shall act in the president-elect's place and stead until the next annual general meeting of the corporation.
  - (10) In the event there are no nominations received from any primary employment category for a director or deputy director position, then a nomination for that respective position will be accepted from a member of a secondary employment category.
  - (11) Similarly, the primary employment categories shall each elect a deputy director for each category, who shall fill the respective position of director should a vacancy occur, and will hold office until the next annual general meeting of the corporation.
  - (12) In the event that both the offices of director and deputy director for a primary employment category become vacant for any reason, the membership of the primary employment category so affected shall appoint one of their members to represent that employment category on the executive board until the next annual general meeting of the corporation.
  - (13) The immediate past-president shall serve as chairman of the nominating committee.
  - (14) Any elections of office to the executive board of the corporation shall be by ballot, or by show of hands, as the general meeting may decide. Elections will be determined by a simple majority of votes submitted.
  - (15) Should an individual already holding the position of functional group director or deputy director wish to let their name stand for President Elect, and if that individual is not successful in their bid for that position; they will automatically revert back to the functional group executive position they currently hold and thereby complete their term of office in that position. If successful, another eligible member from that functional group will be appointed to complete the individual's term.

Representative Committees

Bylaw 9 (1) Each of the primary employment categories shall have representative committees that are comprised for four members, the Director, Deputy Director, and two (2) members from their functional sector group who will serve for two-year terms; with two (2) members to be elected in even-numbered years and two (2) members to be elected in odd-numbered years at the annual general meeting of the corporation. A member is limited to serve for two (2) consecutive terms or maximum four (4) years.

- (2) In accordance with Bylaw 8 (5) pertaining to election of directors and deputy directors:
  - (a) The primary employment categories for Chief Financial Officers, Financial and Payroll/Human Resources and Procurement having each elected two (2) members in even-numbered years shall appoint one (1) of the members so elected to serve as Director on the Executive Board who shall automatically serve as chairperson for their respective representative committee and the second member so elected shall serve as Deputy Director.
  - (b) The primary employment categories for Facilities, Transportation and Information Technology having each elected two (2) members in odd-numbered years shall appoint one (1) of the members so elected to serve as Director on the Executive Board who shall automatically serve as chairperson for their respective representative committee and the second member so elected shall serve as Deputy Director.
- (3) The Executive Director is an ex-officio member on each representative committee. The Executive Director will assist the representative committees with any clerical needs and make arrangements for committee-sponsored workshops and seminars as required.
- (4) Subject to executive board approval, each representative committee may establish its own procedures, duties and powers toward leadership development, policy and professional development specific to their member group, advocacy issues, networking and mentorship for its members.
- (5) Each representative committee following the annual general meeting each year shall review the committee's terms of reference, plans for professional development, including any other business of the association and shall compile a report and submit to the executive board for approval.
- (6) The executive board will review each representative committee's annual plans and subsequent reports and will facilitate a cooperative approach between all the representative committees prior to the executive board approving the plans and tasks being considered by each committee.
- (7) Representative committees may work with government representatives, staff of partners in education and other organizations involving areas of interest to the association membership. Any official discussions, agreements and expressed positions on behalf of the Association are the sole responsibility of the executive board.
- (8) Each representative committee shall keep minutes, records of discussion and briefing notes from their meetings and other activities and submit to the executive board on a regular basis.

Committees

- Bylaw 10(1) The executive board may establish as many committees that it deems necessary or that is deemed necessary by the membership to conduct specified business and shall approve the appointment of persons to the committee it has established pursuant to this section.
- (2) The past president and the Executive Director shall prepare a list of vacant positions required to be filled on committees or vacant association appointments and shall distribute this listing to the membership along with a call for expressions of interest as soon as possible after being advised of the vacancy or creation of a new committee or request for representation. All names received for the various positions will be placed on the list and a further call for expressions of interest will be made at the annual general meeting.

- (3) Members of committees and appointees for the corporation may be reimbursed for attending meetings of the committees, in accordance to association policy.
- (4) In the event a vacancy occurs in an appointed position on a standing committee, the Executive Director shall issue a call for expressions of interest and, if required, an election will be conducted by voting using electronic mail to fill the vacancy until the expiry of the term of office of the member who vacated their position on the committee.
- (5) In the event a vacancy occurs in any appointed position as an association representative on a provincial board or committee, the Executive Director shall issue a call for expressions of interest and the executive board will subsequently appoint a member or associate member to fill the vacancy for that position.
- (6) A vacancy in the membership of any committee does not impair the power of the remaining committee members to act.
- (7) Each committee shall review annually their duties and responsibilities and make recommendations for change to the executive board.

Executive Board

Bylaw 11(1) The executive board shall manage and regulate the affairs and business of the corporation.

- (2) The executive board shall hold meetings as often as the business of the corporation warrants, and shall be called on the decision of the president. At least seven (7) days before the date of the meeting, a written notice calling the meeting, giving the date, place and hour of such meeting, as well as the business to be brought before the meeting shall be sent to each executive member by electronic mail or by ordinary post at their last known address.
- (3) Majority of the executive board shall constitute a quorum.
- (4) All members of the executive board shall have a vote and all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the event of a tie, the question shall be decided in the negative. Seconders for motions shall not be required.
- (5) Members of the executive board shall be reimbursed for any authorized reasonable expenses for attending meetings of the executive board and for attending to business of the corporation at rates approved by the executive board using the prescribed expense forms as provided for that purpose.
- (6) No member of the executive board shall publish or cause to be published any matter whatsoever concerning the corporation that is still under consideration by the executive board of the corporation.
- (7) A member of the executive board shall vacate his or her office if the member is absent from three (3) or more consecutive meetings of the executive board without authorization of the executive board to be absent.
- (8) An elected member of the executive board may resign by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the executive board.
- (9) The resignation of a member of the executive board is effective on the date stated on the written notice or, if no date is stated, then it is effective on the date the written notice is received by the executive board.
- (10) A vacancy in the membership of the executive board does not impair the power of the remaining members of the executive board to act.
- (11) If a member serving as an elected member of the executive board is suspended from the corporation, the member's powers and duties as an elected member of the executive board are suspended for the same period.
- (12) If a member serving as an elected member of the executive board is expelled from the corporation, the member ceases to be an elected member of the executive board on the day the member is expelled.
